
fisheye menu IE6 and IE7 Problem

Posted by Mareikii - 2009/01/20 05:04

Hey everyone,

I just installed the fisheye menu and got this problem:

It works fine in Firefox, but I am having trouble with IE6 and IE7. The Icons are all overlapping each other. So I can just see the last Icon.

I changed the image/spacer.gif to the correct source.

Any ideas?

Thanks,
Mareikii

Hello.

Tried that but still not working.

Any ideas.

Thanks so much for your help so far.

Re:fisheye menu IE6 and IE7 Problem

Posted by reza - 2009/11/21 21:42

usually, the error is caused by conflict beetwen js files for testing, i've used all js files u are using in your page, but i didnt find any error, the module was ok

maybe there's problem during the installation
i suggest you to reinstall the module

if it still doesnt work, then sorry we cant help you fix the problem

regards
